Visualizing Your Retirement

If you're younger, it may be more difficult to imagine what retired life will be like. If you're middle age or older, you may have a clearer picture. No matter how old you are right now, it's always helpful to explore your expectations and concerns about retirement. The following exercises can help.

Exercise 1 – Identify Your Retirement Expectations

For this exercise, place a check mark next to the retirement expectations that apply to you. Complete this exercise with your spouse or partner. If you're single, it will help you visualize your expectations more if you discuss them with a close friend or family member.

Living an active lifestyle	Volunteering and doing charity work
Living a quiet lifestyle	Relocating to a new city or state
Traveling more	Spending more time with family and friends
Working part-time	Having less stress and living a simpler life

____ Downsizing your home

List any other expectations:

Exercise 2 - Identify Your Retirement Concerns

Now that you've identified your retirement expectations, you can now explore your retirement concerns. For each item listed below, place a check mark beside the concerns that apply to you. Again, make sure to complete this exercise with your spouse or partner. If you're single, discuss your concerns with a close friend or family member.

Reduced income	Declining health
Rising costs of health care	Outliving your money
Providing care for a family member	Low investment returns
Becoming less active	Uncertainty of Social Security benefits

List any other concerns:
